whom it may concern:

Pastor Phil Aguilar and the Set Free Christian Fellowship

I have had the pleasure of knowing and working with Pastor Phil Aguilar for many years than I can remember.

and his church members have devoted countless hours assisting disabled and elderly citizens in maintaining their properties. He provides clean wholesome shelter for many of the homeless and persons with drug and alcohol addictions in this community.

In my position as Code Enforcement Manager, I have worked closely with Pastor Aguilar and his staff on a variety of issues. Since he is consistently reliable and conscientious, he is truly a pleasure to work with. He can always be counted on to get the job done.

Additionally, he has provided us with a large number of volunteer workers on various occasions for graffiti removal and alley clean-up projects. These projects could not have been successfully completed without his assistance.

Overall, I have found that Pastor Aguilar and the Set Free Christian Fellowship continue to be an asset to the community and I feel that much of the fellowship's success is due to Pastor Aguilar's professional approach. We are fortunate to have this organization in this community.

Please feel free to contact me at (714) 999-5158, if you should require additional information concerning Pastor Aguilar and his church.

Sincerely,

W. Poole

DECLARATION

I, Gregory A. Goodyear, hereby declare and state as follows:

1. I am a certified public accountant licensed in the State of California. I am a partner in the firm of Goodrich, Goodyear & Hinds, an accountancy corporation formed in the State of California. Our address is 6700 East Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 154, Long Beach, California 90803.

2. Goodrich, Goodyear & Hinds has conducted the audits of the books and accounts of Trinity Christian Center of Santa Ana, Inc., d/b/a Trinity Broadcasting Network (Trinity) since 1989. As part of our audits, we confirm that Trinity properly accounts for deferred revenues, or donor liabilities. Deferred revenues, also known as restricted revenues or donor liabilities, reflect contributions which Trinity has received and which are designated by the donor for a specific purpose.

3. Our office is currently conducting the audits for 1991 for Trinity. The unaudited financial records of Trinity note that designated donations received by Trinity for a television station in Philadelphia, totaling approximately $37,000.00, are reflected as deferred revenues on Trinity's books. This restriction will also appear on the audited financial statements when completed.

4. As part of our audit, Goodrich, Goodyear & Hinds follows the standards specified by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) for non-profit organizations. AICPA Statement of Position 78-10 governs the financial treatment of designated contributions for non-profit and charitable organizations. Trinity fully complies with the AICPA statement for all restricted contributions or deferred revenue.

5. In the case of deferred revenues held by Trinity for a Philadelphia television station, notice to donors regarding the status of the project, and what alternatives, if applicable, the donor may want to designate for his/her gift, will not be given until the audit is completed. Goodrich, Goodyear & Hinds currently anticipates completing Trinity's 1991 audit during April 1992.

6. Goodrich, Goodyear & Hinds conducts its audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Trinity maintains its records in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
